Mike & Judy Lembke
and Family

"Truly a magical place!
A lodge that feels like family."

–David Wald

Wollaston Lake is one of Canada's National Treasures.

Wollaston Lake, located in far northeastern Saskatchewan, Canada, is one of the world's natural treasures. Lying just south of the Arctic Circle, this 800-square mile lake is home to some of the largest Northern Pike and Lake Trout found in the world. Walleye and Grayling, in impressive numbers and size, are also found here. It is a wilderness fishing dream. In the world of fishing, only the beauty of the surrounding forests and the warm and friendly atmosphere of Wollaston Lake Lodge can come close to complimenting the quality of the fishing found here. The management and staff have a single goal: to make your Wollaston Experience the most pleasurable and memorable of your life.

Not only is our lake a national treasure, but our people are too. The very same friends who fish with us year after year are not only drawn to Wollaston Lake Lodge for its fishing, but also its people. Our repeat guests have become 'one of the Wollaston family' over the years.

"The whole team was awesome. I appreciated the team's attention to detail and commitment to ensuring a very high-quality experience. I liked the laid-back vibe of the lodge on a whole and I know that's very hard to pair with the kind of high quality service that you deliver."

–Martin Beck

WOLLASTON LAKE LODGE
GRAND SLAM

FISHING the Grand Slam

"I was extremely impressed by the staff and how they operated and worked together. Fishing was world class and I don't believe it can be topped anywhere else."

–John Messina

Whether you are a baitcaster, spincaster or fly angler, Wollaston is your choice to both hone your skills and test your abilities.

Wollaston Lake's 800-square miles of cool, clear water plunges to depths down to 400 feet. Numerous rivers pour highly oxygenated water into the bays. These factors, along with a tremendous forage base which helps our fish grow to such legendary size, provide the perfect habitat for our Northern Pike, Lake Trout, Walleye and Arctic Grayling.

These four species make up the Grand Slam of freshwater fishing. It is incredibly rare to find all four of these highly sought after species in the same lake anywhere in the world, much less Saskatchewan.

Each of our guides are true professionals and are skilled in all fishing methods. They are more than ready to show you the thrill of learning a new technique. They also know the pure adrenaline rush of fighting a huge fish, and their job is to help you feel it too.

GUIDES

"Making the guides part of our family. We could tell they genuinely enjoyed us as much as we them."

–Thomas Enzmann

ORVIS 2018 ENDORSED FLY FISHING LODGE OF THE YEAR

We are the only lodge in the world that has been chosen THE "2018 Orvis Endorsed Fly-fishing Lodge of the Year". This special honor is given yearly to the Lodge that best represents the Orvis company's Endorsement. What is an Orvis-Endorsed Operation? Over two decades ago, Orvis set out to make planning a world-class fishing experience easier for their customers. They sought out the best fishing operations in the most exceptional fishing areas across the globe. The result was the Orvis-Endorsed Operations program for lodges, guides, outfitters, and expeditions. Each endorsed operation has its own character, but all share the same high standards: great service, great fishing, and an experienced, professional staff. These standards of excellence are continually reviewed by the Orvis staff and evaluated by visiting guests in post-visit critiques sent directly to Orvis. Orvis-Endorsed operations cater to every ability from beginner to expert.

We're proud to provide our guests with safe, comfortable transportation on the lake and in the air.

Daily fly-outs to remote parts of Wollaston Lake or to over twenty neighboring lakes will help maximize your Wollaston Experience. Two deHavilland Turbo Otter float planes can whisk up to six guests and their guides to these distant locations.

Wollaston Lake has a lot of areas to explore with 2,700 miles of shoreline. Each of our guides and his two guests, are provided with an 19-foot custom Lund Pro-V boat. An 90-hp Yamaha 4-stroke quietly gets you where you want to go on the lake smoothly. The boats come with an extra large casting platform along with wide gunnels.

This design, exclusive to Wollaston Lake Lodge, provides an extra large area for casting and fighting those big toothy critters. The boats also come equipped with top of the line depth finders and trolling motors, all adding to your ability to get into the big fish.

MEALS and Service

A fishing trip this far north used to include more than its fair share of roughing it, or doing without. Not here, not at Wollaston Lake Lodge.

Our 5-star chef team offers a variety of meal selections. Begin each day with a breakfast made to order. The pastry and bread chef will add to your meals by creating fresh baked goods for you daily. Then when sitting down to enjoy your choice of dinner, you can choose from our extensive wine list and complete your evening meal with a decadent dessert. Our portions will satisfy the hungriest appetite while our presentations impress.

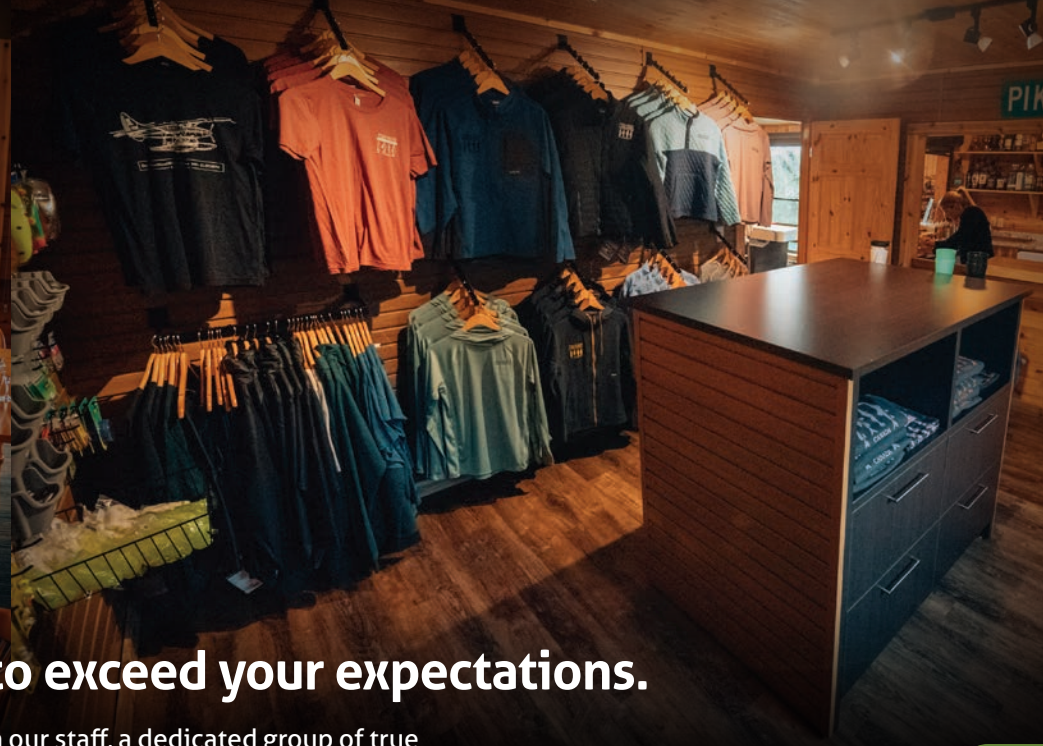

There are no set times for you to come to dinner. This is your Wollaston Experience and you should set the plan. All meals are cooked to order and special requests are graciously welcomed.

Special dietary requirements are, of course, no problem for our team. Our chef and waitstaff are dedicated to making your culinary experiences just as memorable as your fishing.

"You feel like you are at a 5-star restaurant from the plating of the food, ...the water & drinks always refilled. Makes it hard to believe you're at a fishing lodge."

–Adam Bruner

Our mission at Wollaston Lake Lodge is to exceed your expectations.

5-Star service is what Wollaston Lake Lodge is all about. It starts and ends with our staff, a dedicated group of true professionals who are well-versed in the art of personal service. Our staff to guest ratio is better than one-to-one. We pay attention to all the details, making your stay so memorable you'll just have to come back.

It is always our pleasure to welcome you and help make your Canadian wilderness fishing dreams come true.
